YOUR ACCESS GUIDE TO FEDERAL ARTS & CULTURE FUNDING

Dear friends,

Having worked for 25 years in the arts world, I know how important it is for artists to have their government's support in preserving, nourishing and promoting their work.

This e-guide is designed to help you in your financing efforts and to give you an overview of your options with the federal government. Our goal is to guide you through the financing possibilities that you can count on to support your creative work. Click on the links next to each section to find out more about each program, or to submit your project.

As the Official Opposition Heritage Critic, it is my great pleasure to support the arts and to defend the cultural file in the House of Commons. At the same time, my job is to represent emerging and independent artists.

I hope this guide will help you in your funding research, and will be a useful, contributive tool for the success of artists and cultural entrepreneurs. Remember that we are available to respond to your heritage-related questions.

Best wishes,

Pierre Nantel
député de Longueuil–Pierre-Boucher

Building Communities through Arts and Heritage

The Building Communities through Arts and Heritage program is designed to increase opportunities, through festivals or other events and activities, for local artists and artisans to be involved in their community and for local groups to commemorate local history and heritage.
